“The education of young hearts and minds needs to be undertaken without fear or prejudice. Give children a wider palette to paint all the colours of their different moods.”

Nitin Sawhney (Dhushum) Artis Adviser

Looking for ways to make your talent count?

Artis stimulates creativity and excellence in education through the performing arts. Giving children the chance to explore and enjoy creativity is a powerful tool in accelerating their overall development.

We are recruiting Artis Specialists – imaginative and versatile performing artists – to deliver projects and a specially devised creative curriculum that fuses music, drama and movement on a weekly basis throughout the school year.

You might be just the performing artist we are looking for. That is, if you...

- are open to new challenges
- want to use your creativity
- are passionate about nurturing creativity in children
- have a flair for communicating with young people
- are looking to benefit from an award winning free training programme
- want access to a PGDip course in Performing Arts Leadership
- appreciate networking with other performing artists
- are looking for extensive support and mentoring
- want to work for an exciting company that respects your creativity

...then visit www.artiseducation.com

...and come along to our free taster session to find out more!

Place: Studio 2
